CONDITIONS OF SALE.

I. The highest Bidder to be the Buyer; and if any dispute arise between two or more Bidders, the Lot so in dispute shall be immediately put up again and re-sold.

II. The Auctioneer shall regulate the bidding, and reserves the right to refuse a bidding, as he may think advisable.

III. In the case of Lots upon which there is a reserve, the Auctioneer shall have the right to bid on behalf of the Seller.

IV. The Purchasers to give in their Names and Places of Abode, and to pay down 5s. in the Pound, or more, in part of payment, or the whole of the purchase money, if required; in default of which, the Lot or Lots so purchased to be immediately put up again and re-sold.

V. The Lots to be taken away and paid for, whether genuine and authentic or not, with all faults and errors of description, at the Buyer's expense and risk within Two Days from the Sale; Messrs. Puttick & Simpson not being responsible for the correct description, genuineness, or authenticity of, or any fault or defect in, any Lot, and making no warranty whatever.

VI. To prevent inaccuracy in delivery, and inconvenience in the settlement of the Purchases, no Lot can on any account be removed during the time of Sale; and the remainder of the Purchase-Money must absolutely be paid on the delivery.

VII. Upon failure of complying with the above Conditions, the Money deposited in part of payment shall be forfeited; all Lots uncleared within the time aforesaid shall be re-sold by public or private Sale, and the deficiency (if any) attending such re-sale shall be made good by the defaulter at this Sale.

Buyers who are unable to attend the Sale, may have their Commissions faithfully executed by their obedient Servants,

PUTTICK & SIMPSON.

INTRODUCTORY NOTES.

The Frederick Arthur Crisp Collection of Chinese Armorial Porcelain is recognised as being the principal Collection of such in existence, is comprised entirely of specimens of Chinese Porcelain of the late 17th and early 18th Centuries, decorated in China with the armorial bearings of many of the ancient families of England, in accordance with orders sent to the East.

The Sale Catalogue has been arranged in alphabetical order and compiled with reference to the late Mr. Crisp's privately printed Catalogue, in which the greatest care was taken with regard to the accuracy of the heraldic information it contains.

Four copies only of this privately printed Catalogue remain, and can be obtained of Messrs. Phillimore & Co., Ltd., 120 Chancery Lane, W.C.2, price four guineas each.

The numbers in brackets at the end of the descriptions in the Sale Catalogue are those of Mr. Crisp's Catalogue.

Many of the pieces formed part of the Collection of Armorial Porcelain formed by Joseph Jackson Howard, LL.D., F.S.A., Maltravers Herald Extraordinary, which was sold by Puttick & Simpson on June 23rd, 1902. A few pieces of old English Armorial Pottery and Porcelain have been added.
